Upper Grade News -

I hope your break was restful and enjoyable! We are back at it. The second quarter ends next week Friday, so we are finishing up a number of units. I am planning tests in 6th, 7th, and 8th grade English classes next week, as well as 7th-8th grade US History. This last week, we hit Lesson 60 in 5th-6th grade math, which means we are halfway through the book! Yeah! Just a reminder, I try to send home packets of corrected papers on Tuesdays and Fridays. Please look for those to come home those days. If you have any questions, please let me know!

Good Morning! Here is what is happening in grades 3-4.

Happy New Year! I pray you had a restful and blessed break!

3-4 Word of God - This week we learned about God giving the Israelites the rules they were to follow as His people (the 10 Commandments). We also learned how shortly after these rules were given they turned away from God and made a golden idol in the shape of a calf! Our main focus this week was emphasizing that we follow God's commands out of a loving and thankful heart, not because keeping the commandments will earn us anything.

NEWS & NOTES

3-4 Language Arts - This week we began our study of Ancient Greece and Rome. As a whole group, we are learning the history of the Roman empire, while smaller groups are reading novels based on this period of history. A new chapter in English was introduced; we are adding possessives and interjection to our list of parts of speech that we can recognize. Due to the short week, we are taking this week as a review week for spelling - no spelling test this week!

3-8 Recorders - Your Christmas Eve performance was excellent - Brava! We will continue learning notes and new songs from the "Recorder Karate" series. Our next testing day will be Thursday, January 18.

5-8 Music and Spanish - We are using the DuoLingo app to review Spanish vocabulary from last semester. In music, we are resuming our study of the Baroque and Classical eras of music by beginning a study of Rinaldo, an opera by Handel (a composer famous for The Messiah)
