M: We confess:

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray; Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

FIRST LESSON

Genesis 14:14–24

When Abram heard that his relative Lot had been taken captive, he called out the 318 trained men born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan.<sup>15</sup> During the night Abram divided his men to attack them and he routed them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

<sup>16</sup> He recovered all the goods and brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other people.

<sup>17</sup> After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King’s Valley).

<sup>18</sup> Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High,<sup>19</sup> and he blessed Abram, saying, “Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth.<sup>20</sup> And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand.” Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people and keep the goods for yourself.”

<sup>22</sup> But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, and have taken an oath<sup>23</sup> that I will accept nothing belonging to you, not even a thread or the thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say, ‘I made Abram rich.’<sup>24</sup> I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me— to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them have their share.

PSALM 110 (sung in paraphrase by all)

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 5:1–10

Every high priest is selected from among men and is appointed to represent them in matters related to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.<sup>2</sup> He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray, since he himself is subject to weakness.<sup>3</sup> This is why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.<sup>4</sup> No one takes this honor upon himself; he must be called by God, just as Aaron was.

<sup>5</sup> So Christ also did not take upon himself the glory of becoming a high priest. But God said to him, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father.”<sup>6</sup> And he says in another place, “You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup> During the days of Jesus’ life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.<sup>8</sup> Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered<sup>9</sup> and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him<sup>10</sup> and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

VERSE

M: “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified”
(John 12:23).

GOSPEL

John 12:20–33

M: . . . in John chapter twelve, beginning at verse twenty.

C:  Glory be to you, O Lord!

Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the Feast.<sup>21</sup> They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request. “Sir,” they said, “we would like to see Jesus.”

<sup>22</sup> Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.<sup>24</sup> I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

<sup>25</sup> “The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

<sup>26</sup> Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me.

<sup>27</sup> “Now my heart is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.” <sup>29</sup> The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, “This voice was for your benefit, not mine. <sup>31</sup> Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out. <sup>32</sup> But I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself.” <sup>33</sup> He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.

M: This is the Gospel of our Lord!

C:  Praise be to you, O Christ!

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Weekly Catechism Review Page

Last week we visited Naboth's vineyard to see why God forbids us in his Ninth Commandment to covet our neighbor's house.

By "house," don't just think of a building someone lives in with a kitchen and bedrooms. That is, recall the story pictured below.

Saul had inherited from the LORD his position as anointed king over Israel. David had been anointed as Saul's successor by Samuel, but waiting was hard. Saul was vicious. Young David had to keep his heart pure from enviously coveting Saul's throne and getting rid of the king.

An opportunity seemed to come when David and Abishai crept into Saul's military camp at night and found the king and his bodyguard fast asleep. Abishai was all for putting a quick end to the king. David's troubles would be over! The throne would be his.

Abishai's spear is already poised to pin Saul to the earth. But David will not yield to the temptation. He puts out his hand to restrain his friend. Taking vengeance is not his business but the LORD's.

So 1) Saul was spared from premature death 2) David did not pollute his life with covetousness and murder, and 3) we see why God so lovingly commands us to be patient and content, not envious.
